Projects

VAF(Victim Adress Finder)

- Engineered a real-time biometric identification system using Arduino UNO and Adafruit fingerprint sensor to retrieve victim data during emergencies.
- Programmed embedded logic in C via Arduino IDE for biometric capture, verification, and Serial Monitor-based data display.
- Designed for ambulance deployment to minimise treatment delays by enabling hospitals to contact guardians swiftly.

Restro(restaurant management System)-HTML, CSS, JavaScript

- Developed a responsive, multi-role web application for chefs, customers, and receptionists using HTML, CSS, and vanilla JavaScript.
- Enabled real-time order tracking, dietary preference logging, and QR code-based table management and exit validation.
- Designed interactive UI components for seamless ordering, customer support, and service coordination.

Student Management System

- Created a modular, object-oriented student data manager with support for registration, mark entry, and CRUD operations.
- Utilized Java collections (ArrayLists) for in-memory data storage, enhancing runtime efficiency and flexibility.
- Built using Eclipse IDE with clean, maintainable code structure leveraging OOP principles
